

Friday is FUNDAY at Nannypalooza

Join us on Friday afternoon for the following optional activities. This is ALL included in your registration. Stop by and get the most out of your weekend.

Jobapalooza:

As a nanny, you always need to be prepared for the next adventure. Join us for this unique experience to be ready for your next position. Whether you are job searching now or not- it pays to keep your paperwork ready to go!

From 12:30 to 2:30 Job Prep Bootcamp Answers to all your job search questions!

In the main ballroom, tables will be set up so you can visit experts and nanny leaders and get one on one advice and counsel. Pop in for a quick refresher or spend a little time and really dig in!

- * Feedback on your resume or portfolio
- * Mock mini interviews
- * One on one consults
- * Your Nanny Resume consults
- * Get a head shot photo- there may be an additional cost for this
- * A to Z Nanny contracts consults
- * Homework Solutions consults
- * Chat with leaders of our industry

From 2:30 to 4:30 Job Fair and Agency Meet Up

Visit the best agencies around! Some of Nannypalooza's best friends will be set up and ready to meet with you. Stop by and chat about positions open right now or just make a connection for the future.

Bonus- snacks will be available in this room during this time

Bonus Bonus- come in and talk to at least 5 agencies and be entered to win $200 cash!!

Extra Sessions:

We are also happy to offer 2 extra bonus workshops:

1:00- 2:15 Group discussion Nanny Manager/Family Assistant

3:00- 4:15 Addressing Gender Bias in the Early Childhood Space.

A candid conversation identifying ways adult language and modeling can teach unconscious gender bias as well as discouraging self-confidence, and positive body image for the children in our care. This workshop will provide some tools to modify our approach and create a safe, open, inclusive environment for both the families we serve and society at large.

Stop by the registration table anytime from noon Friday to 4:00pm to get your registration folder and swag bag.